

Marry me abroad

Imagine saying "I do" in a gondola in Venice; or in a chapel in a private Tuscan villa; or on a clifftop along the Amalfi Coast! Well, now it's easy to tie the knot in one of the most romantic countries on earth, thanks to a Sydney-based company called Marry Me Abroad.

With a broad network of partners in Italy, the company helps Australian couples marry in the Italian destination of their choice. Their team takes care of all the details of your big day, from flowers, hair and makeup to the wedding service and accommodation.

Marry Me Abroad's assistants are based in the main cities in Italy, so they can attend pertinent appointments with couples; and they also have translators and English-speaking witnesses
