WHAT'S NEW

The art of coffee

Barazi launched its newest addition, the Galatea, at BarShow Sydney in September. With its attractive art deco design the Galatea celebrates the origins of espresso making and provides the best in modern technology. The machine is stainless steel and has a built-in volumetric pump, settable thermal balancing system and illuminated back panels display. The Galatea is sure to be a hit with baristas at the special introductory price of $9,200 (incl. GST). For further details visit www.barazi.com.au or call 1300 550 927.

Espresso Culture Crawl

Evolving Success invites you to an espresso historical trek through Melbourne, commemorating the contributions of early Italian immigrants in developing the espresso industry. The walking tour visits original cafes and roasting houses around the city, stopping for a lesson in 'cupping'. An optional lunch is included at Dimattina's Restaurant, Carlton, celebrating the Dimattina family's 50 years as one of Melbourne's first Italian coffee roasters. The two-hour tours are conducted every Thursday at 10am and cost $35 per person (including coffee) or $50 (including coffee and lunch with wine). For more information contact Maria on 0425 774 249 or email maria@evolvingsuccess.com.au.

Bar quality gelato

Using only the finest natural ingredients, with no artificial colours or flavours, gelativo creates the same fresh and authentic taste from the gelato bar, for you to enjoy at home. Gelativo uses fresh milk and cream for its dairy

Marry Me

Want a romantic wedding maybe you're getting it a second time and you want it different? Well, 'Marry Me' may be the answer.

You may be surprised to know that Italy is an increasing destination for Australian couples for good reasons: all you have to do is get yourselves there and you're done. You don't have to have something new.

Marry Me Abroad is a company with a network of agents across Italy. This means that your wedding in Italy could be a pretty big day - Venice, for example, is a popular destination. The list goes on and on.

The Marry Me Abroad team offers everything from the flowers, even private golf for the groom.

Fresh pasta draws Sydney crowds the rest of Sydney travellers get hold of some pasta, a winner," Mr Rapattoni says.

Pasta Italia makes a wide range of pastas but it's the fresh shapes which are most in demand. Shapes, such as Calabrian maccheroni, are normally made in-house.

For more information call 02 9610 6666 or log onto www.pasta.com.au. Pasta Italia is located at Bossley Park, Sydney.

Pasta Italia, a gourmet pasta manufacturer, is attracting customers from as far a field as Manly, Wollongong and Katoomba.

The Bossley Park business has been surveying their customers and the results have been surprising. Deni Rapattoni, General Manager of Pasta Italia, said he was delighted with the response.

"It was great to find out that people thought our pasta was so good that it was worth traveling a few hours to buy.
